

Workshop on Meteorological System Controls

The Legal Affairs Department at the Center organized today (Wednesday) a workshop on "Controls for the Application of the Provisions of the Meteorological Law and its Executive Regulations and its Most Important Features", which dealt with the philosophy of the development of meteorology, the structural and organizational development of meteorology in the Kingdom, the controls and provisions related to the Meteorological Law and its Executive Regulations, the legal implications of their issuance, and the mechanisms for the practical application of their provisions.