

Arab and international praise for the role of Saudi meteorology in the media and awareness in this year's Hajj

The Kingdom chaired the work of the ninth meeting of the Arab Committee for Meteorological Awareness and Information, at the headquarters of the General Secretariat of the Arab League in Cairo, and the meeting discussed a number of topics of interest, which are included in the agenda of the meeting of the Committee related to the media and meteorological awareness work, including the establishment of the website of the Arab Permanent Committee for Meteorology. Arabs concerned with meteorological and climate affairs.

During the meeting, the Committee thanked Saudi Arabia, represented by the National Center of Meteorology, for its work in this year's Hajj season, praising the great role and tangible efforts at the media and awareness level, and the great capabilities and experiences it has harnessed in this field. Meteorological information and its support for the programs related to the work of the Committee, which contributed to the success of its events and awareness and information work.

The Arab Committee for Information and Awareness concluded its work on Tuesday by reviewing a number of topics of interest and issuing its final report.